This journey has required me to love bigger than I ever thought I could and to find the essence of my soul. I quickly uncovered that I could not take another where I had not gone myself.

1. Stand

Trust in your Presence
Draw him in with your desire
Prepare for his arrival
Let him come in his own time
Enjoy your endeavors

2. Listen for how to love him

Care and he will begin to trust you
Offer compassion and he will reveal himself “Hear him” and you will know what he yearns for

3. Appreciate “Who” he is

See him – for more than his appearance..., for more than what he does..., for more than how much money he makes..., for more than what he can give you...
See him - past your judgments, expectations, prejudice and family history
See him - as Divine
Believe in him
Give him back to himself

4. Captivate him with your pleasure and your passion for life

Model everything
Slow him down
Awaken his senses
Intrigue him with a possibility
Arouse his desire
Take your pleasure

5. Take him beyond what he knows

Explore and appreciate the intimacy of his body
Expand the boundaries of his mind
Initiate his union with the Divine

6. Receive him completely

Love him unconditionally
Drink him in to your soul
Embrace his vulnerability
Let him rest in your arms
Accept his gift

7. Let him go in deep love

Surrender to the experience
Express your deep gratitude
Trust your mark on his soul
Let him know he is free
